Empowering to Change: Programme for Young Women Professionals

About the Course

The United Nations Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) agenda for 2030 highlights that engaging women in the workforce will be a key factor that will help achieve future growth aspirations. Since the "UN Declaration of the Decade of Women" in 1975, attention and action on women's concerns have steadily increased and training of women professionals is a major focus area for organisations.

Women professionals face many challenges at the workplace. Empowerment of women professionals, particularly young professionals, is high on the agenda of several companies in India to enable them to give their best to the workplace, as well as achieve a work life balance.

Keeping the contemporary issues and challenges in mind, this training programme is being held for young women professionals from PSUs & governmental organisations by HUDCO'S HSMI (the research and training wing of HUDCO). It is focused on developing knowledge as well as social and communication skills, which is a key area of empowerment of young women professionals.

Participants

This fee based programme will be of interest to young women professionals from PSUs, National, State and Local govts, Prastatal agencies, international organisations etc.

Programme Coverage

The course is developed keeping in mind the requirements of the target group. The programme is structured to impart and exchange information regarding the gender issues at the workplace, as well as individual growth and self empowerment. Course will be taught by experienced HR trainers specialised in the area, with support from HUDCO'S HSMI faculty.

The day wise course coverage includes

Day 1: Focus on Team building, leadership and innovation

Day 2: Focus on Gender and Legal issues at the Workplace

Course Objectives

The objectives of the programme are:

- To enable participants to better interact with internal and external stakeholders at their workplaces
- To support skill development focusing on improving communication, collaboration, adaptability, teamwork, and self-confidence.
- To impart information on various rules and regulations related to gender issues at the workplace

Venue of the programme

The training will be held at HSMI'S office and training facility on Lodhi Road, New Delhi.

Deadline for applications:

The applications of participants will be accepted till 15th September 2019. Last date of receipt of fees at HSMI is 20th September 2019.

HUDCO and HSMI

Housing and Urban Development Corporation Limited was set up in 1970 by the Government of India to accelerate the pace of Housing and Urban Development in the country. It is a Public sector Enterprise, under the Ministry of Housing and Urban Affairs, with 49 years experience in providing loans for housing and urban infrastructure projects in India. HUDCO has established itself as a premier techno-financing company. Apart from the financing operations, HUDCO offers consultancy services, promotes research and studies related to urban development and supports the Govt of India in its various Housing and Urban Development related programmes and policies.

HUDCO's Human Settlement Management Institute (HSMI) is the Research and Training wing of HUDCO. It is recognized as a leading research and training institute in the housing and urban development sector and has trained more than 48,500 professionals. HSMI is involved with capacity building both at the regional and national level for more than 30 years. It has been designated as a National Resource Centre for giving technical inputs in the policies and programmes pertaining to housing and urban development of the Ministry of Housing and Urban Affairs. HUDCO's HSMI also organizes variety of activities like seminars, workshop and conferences for internal and external professionals on a range of public policy and management issues.
